

BEING A STANLEY PARKER

Teachers: All year 7 EFC teachers

Year group: Seven

Subjects: SEAL, transition, literacy, ICT, publishing, Media

Project overview:

New Year seven students will investigate life at Stanley Park High and collaborate to create an A-Z guide book. This book will become a part of the school publicity materials, will be available to all visitors to the school and will help the year sevens of the future to understand how to get by at SPH

Driving questions:

- What does it mean to be a member of Stanley Park High?
- How can we produce work that is of a publishable standard?
- How do we write to inform?

Essential content:

- To understand how to write for a specific purpose and audience
- To know how to gather reliable information from a variety of sources
- To be able to use ICT to format and enhance a written document
- To be able to give an informative and eloquent presentation

Student outcomes:

- One page of illustrated writing for the A-Z guide with a focus on a particular area
- A verbal present their research, learning and book submission to an external visitor to the school
- To keep a record of learning and drafting process, with reflection
